The average price for a transfer from the European Parliament to Zaventem's Airport may vary from 32 to 40 € during the day, and from 42 to 45 € at night.

Taking a taxi in Brussels is quite straight forward if you are in the city centre. There are many taxi stands on the side of the main streets and you can easily identify them thanks to the white, yellow and blue triangular stand at the top of the vehicle. You can find taxi stand information using Brussels Maps or make your reservation by phone (see table above).

All taxis are metered and you do not need to tip, although rounding up to the nearest euro is sometimes acceptable.

Prices in the area of Brussels-Capital-City:

- Between 06:00 a.m. and 22:00 p.m., the basic charge of the taxi meter is 2,40 €
- Between 22:00 p.m. and 06:00 a.m., the basic charge of the taxi meter is 4,40 €
- The price per kilometre calculates cost based on distance and speed. In Brussels, and above a speed of 16.5 km/h, it is 1.80 € per km for trips within the Region (rate 1) and 2.70 € per km for the part of the journey located outside the region (rate 2).
- The price of waiting is a cost per minute when the taxi is stopped at traffic lights or in traffic jams. In Brussels, as soon as a taxi runs at a lower speed to 16.5 km/h, the price per kilometre is not applicable and the meter automatically switches to waiting, so €0.5 per minute rate.
