Cristiana Muscardini moved an oral amendment to Amendment 19, when then read as follows:

'2. End consumer products that require marking are those which are destined for end consumers and listed in the Annex to this Regulation, and imported from third countries, except for products originating in the Territory of the European Union, Turkey, and the Contracting Parties of the EEA Agreement. End consumer products may be exempted from origin marking when, for technical reasons, it appears impossible to mark them.'

Miscellaneous:

Marielle De Sarnez and Kristiina Ojuland had also signed joint motion for a resolution RC-B7-0572/2010.

Monica Luisa Macovei moved an oral amendment to Amendment 1, when then read as follows:

'Calls on the Council to invite the Commission to proceed to quickly develop the action plan for visa liberalisation at its next meeting, on 25 October 2010, thus entering into the fully operational phase of the visa dialogue based on the Republic of Moldova's progress following exploratory talks on the four blocks of the visa dialogue.'

Vytautas Landsbergis moved an oral amendment to paragraph 11, which then read as follows:

'Hopes that the upcoming elections due to be held on 28 November 2010 will be held in full compliance with international standards and reminds all concerned that the pre-election campaign must provide equal opportunities for all political forces; expects measures to be taken to ensure the effectiveness of the right to vote of Moldovan citizens living abroad and states that the de facto authorities in the breakaway region of Transnistria have no right to prevent Moldovan citizens from taking part in the voting process.'

Miscellaneous

Bernd Posselt moved oral amendments to paragraphs 3, 5 and 15, which then read as follows:

— § 3

'Recognises Russia's right to fight real terrorism and armed insurgency in the North Caucasus, but urges the authorities to do so while upholding international human rights law; warns that continuing abuses and unlawful counter-insurgency methods will further antagonise the population and, instead of bringing stability, will cause a further escalation of violence in the region.'

— § 5

'Stresses that the lasting impunity in Chechnya contributes to destabilisation across the whole North Caucasus region.'

— § 15

'Condemns the intimidating search of the offices of human rights organisations and expects a clarification of the legality and aims of these actions;'
