

European Elections results of the European Free Alliance

---

I, the undersigned,

for the purposes of the REF [EU, Euratom] No 1141/2014, Art. 3[1][d], hereby DECLARE that:

(1) the European Free Alliance ASBL/EUPP [EFA] wished to participate in the 2014 elections to the European Parliament and (2) wishes to participate in the next elections to the European Parliament.

The European Free Alliance regrets that no provisions have been adopted necessary for the election of the Members of the European Parliament by direct universal suffrage with a uniform procedure in all Member States or in accordance with principles common to all Member States as stipulated in the Article 223[1] of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

For this reason, I hereby PUBLICLY DECLARE also that:

it is the intention of the European Free Alliance to participate in elections to the European Parliament as soon as it will be allowed by the European law and regulations.

In the meantime, the EFA participates in the European elections through its members.

***

In annex, there are the most recent results of European elections in the Members States where the European Free Alliance has competed through its members.

Director of the European ice

NOTES

- a) In Spain, NECat, Independants, ERC and others formed the coalition "L'Esquerra pel dret a decidir" (EPDD) in the European elections 2014. The MEP elected as Independent on the list of "L'esquerra pel dret a decidir". (EPDD) has inscribed in the EP under the name of the party "Esquerra Republicana de Catalunya" (ERC), a member of the coalition EPDD. ERC is a full member of the EFA.
- b) In Spain, Euskal Herria Bildu, Bloque Nacionalista Galego (BNG) and others formed the coalition "Los pueblos deciden" (LPD). EH Bildu elected MEP [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is an individual member of the EFA, BNG is a full member of the EFA.
- c) In Spain, COMPROMIS, Equo, Cha and others formed the coalition "Primavera Europea". CHA is a full member of the EFA. COMPROMIS is coalition of which is part BLOC, which is full member of the EFA. [MEP from COMPROMIS was replaced by MEP from EQUO on 10/10/2016]
- d) In the UK, the website of the Electoral Commission redirects to the website of the BBC for the list with the official results. Copies of both sites are attached.