

PARLEMENT EUROPEEN

Strasbourg le 15 février 1995
CABINET DU PRESIDENT
LE DIRECTEUR

Note à l'attention de M. VINCI, Secrétaire général

Objet: Invitation adressée aux présidents des Parlements nationaux de cinq pays d'États d'Europe centrale ou orientale à venir à Strasbourg le 5 avril 1995

Vous trouverez en annexe copie des lettres d'invitation que j'ai adressées aux personnes susmentionnées.

Eu égard à l'importance particulière de cette session, je vous prie de prendre, dans le cadre d'un petit groupe de travail, les dispositions nécessaires pour le succès de cette organisation. Outre les questions de protocole et de sécurité, me tiennent particulièrement à coeur le problème de l'interprétation pendant cette réunion, mais aussi le travail parallèle dans le domaine de la presse et de la publicité ainsi que la confection de documentations sur les pays en question. En outre, il conviendrait de préparer - selon les possibilités du calendrier - des rencontres bilatérales des Présidents avec les commissions mixtes ou délégations correspondantes, voire, éventuellement, des rencontres particulières avec des députés.

Je suggère que vous désigniez un fonctionnaire particulièrement compétent, qui soit chargé de coordonner les préparatifs et de se tenir en contact permanent avec M. ENGSTFELD, de mon cabinet, dont les compétences comprennent la liaison avec ces pays.

J'informerai de ce projet la Conférence des Présidents et le Bureau à la prochaine période de session.

Julian PRIESTLEY

*The President
of the European Parliament*

Mr Ivan GASPAROVIC
President
National Council of the Slovak Republic

BRUXELLES

01297 20.02.95

Dear Mr President,

As you know, the European Union has now established a framework for a structured political dialogue with the Associated countries of Central and Eastern Europe. At the meeting of the European Council in Essen last December I welcomed this development and announced that I would be discussing with my colleagues, from the parliaments of the countries concerned, the best way of adding a parliamentary dimension to this arrangement.

It is therefore my intention to convene an informal meeting with yourself and our fellow presidents from the countries of Central and Eastern Europe, to consider how to act together in the light of the decisions taken by the European Council in Essen. I would like to invite you to be present in Strasbourg on Wednesday, 5 April for this meeting, which will begin at 3.00 p.m. and continue until 6.00 p.m.

During the course of this meeting I would suggest that we discuss the following items

- the parliamentary dimension of the structured political dialogue between the EU and the six Associated countries
- the role and functioning of the bilateral Joint Parliamentary Committees set up under the Europe Agreements between the European Parliament and each of the parliaments concerned
- staff cooperation

I am also considering proposing that a special meeting of the Conference of Presidents of Parliaments of the member states of the European Union be convened, to which the presidents of the parliaments of the six Associated countries would also be invited.

It would also be appropriate for us to consider future informal meetings of this kind.

I very much hope that you will be able to accept my invitation and I look forward to seeing you in Strasbourg.

Yours sincerely,

Klaus HÄNSCH

COPIE DESTINÉE AU
DU PRÉSIDENT

*The President
of the European Parliament*

Mr Milan UHDE
President,
Chamber of Deputies of the Czech Republic

BRUXELLES

01296 20.02.95

Dear Mr President,

As you know, the European Union has now established a framework for a structured political dialogue with the Associated countries of Central and Eastern Europe. At the meeting of the European Council in Essen last December I welcomed this development and announced that I would be discussing with my colleagues, from the parliaments of the countries concerned, the best way of adding a parliamentary dimension to this arrangement.

It is therefore my intention to convene an informal meeting with yourself and our fellow presidents from the countries of Central and Eastern Europe, to consider how to act together in the light of the decisions taken by the European Council in Essen. I would like to invite you to be present in Strasbourg on Wednesday, 5 April for this meeting, which will begin at 3.00 p.m. and continue until 6.00 p.m.

During the course of this meeting I would suggest that we discuss the following items

- the parliamentary dimension of the structured political dialogue between the EU and the six Associated countries
- the role and functioning of the bilateral Joint Parliamentary Committees set up under the Europe Agreements between the European Parliament and each of the parliaments concerned
- staff cooperation

I am also considering proposing that a special meeting of the Conference of Presidents of Parliaments of the member states of the European Union be convened, to which the presidents of the parliaments of the six Associated countries would also be invited.

It would also be appropriate for us to consider future informal meetings of this kind.

I very much hope that you will be able to accept my invitation and I look forward to seeing you in Strasbourg.

Yours sincerely,

Klaus HÄNSCH

COPIE 6..

OU PRESIDENT

*The President
of the European Parliament*

JPC/CCEE/GH/md

Mr Jozef OLEKSY
Marshal of the Sejm
of the Republic of Poland

BRUXELLES

01295 20.02.95

Dear Marshal,

As you know, the European Union has now established a framework for a structured political dialogue with the Associated countries of Central and Eastern Europe. At the meeting of the European Council in Essen last December I welcomed this development and announced that I would be discussing with my colleagues, from the parliaments of the countries concerned, the best way of adding a parliamentary dimension to this arrangement.

It is therefore my intention to convene an informal meeting with yourself and our fellow-presidents from the countries of Central and Eastern Europe, to consider how to act together in the light of the decisions taken by the European Council in Essen. I would like to invite you to be present in Strasbourg on Wednesday, 5 April for this meeting, which will begin at 3.00 p.m. and continue until 6.00 p.m.

During the course of this meeting I would suggest that we discuss the following items

- the parliamentary dimension of the structured political dialogue between the EU and the six Associated countries
- the role and functioning of the bilateral Joint Parliamentary Committees set up under the Europe Agreements between the European Parliament and each of the parliaments concerned
- staff cooperation

I am also considering proposing that a special meeting of the Conference of Presidents of Parliaments of the member states of the European Union be convened, to which the presidents of the parliaments of the six Associated countries would also be invited.

It would also be appropriate for us to consider future informal meetings of this kind.

I very much hope that you will be able to accept my invitation and I look forward to seeing you in Strasbourg.

Yours sincerely,

Klaus HÄNSCH

COPIE DESTINEE AU CABINET

*The President
of the European Parliament*

Mr Blagovest SENDOV
President,
Bulgarian National Assembly

BRUXELLES

01298 20.02.95

Dear Mr President,

As you know, the European Union has now established a framework for a structured political dialogue with the Associated countries of Central and Eastern Europe. At the meeting of the European Council in Essen last December I welcomed this development and announced that I would be discussing with my colleagues, from the parliaments of the countries concerned, the best way of adding a parliamentary dimension to this arrangement.

It is therefore my intention to convene an informal meeting with yourself and our fellow presidents from the countries of Central and Eastern Europe, to consider how to act together in the light of the decisions taken by the European Council in Essen. I would like to invite you to be present in Strasbourg on Wednesday, 5 April for this meeting, which will begin at 3.00 p.m. and continue until 6.00 p.m.

During the course of this meeting I would suggest that we discuss the following items

- the parliamentary dimension of the structured political dialogue between the EU and the six Associated countries
- the role and functioning of the bilateral Joint Parliamentary Committees set up under the Europe Agreements between the European Parliament and each of the parliaments concerned
- staff cooperation

I am also considering proposing that a special meeting of the Conference of Presidents of Parliaments of the member states of the European Union be convened, to which the presidents of the parliaments of the six Associated countries would also be invited.

It would also be appropriate for us to consider future informal meetings of this kind.

I very much hope that you will be able to accept my invitation and I look forward to seeing you in Strasbourg.

Yours sincerely,

Klaus HÄNSCH

COPIÉ
RENTRE AU CABINET
DU PRÉSIDENT

*The President
of the European Parliament*

Mr Adrian NASTASE
President
Chamber of Deputies
Romania

BRUXELLES

01299 20.02.95

Dear Mr President,

As you know, the European Union has now established a framework for a structured political dialogue with the Associated countries of Central and Eastern Europe. At the meeting of the European Council in Essen last December I welcomed this development and announced that I would be discussing with my colleagues, from the parliaments of the countries concerned, the best way of adding a parliamentary dimension to this arrangement.

It is therefore my intention to convene an informal meeting with yourself and our fellow presidents from the countries of Central and Eastern Europe, to consider how to act together in the light of the decisions taken by the European Council in Essen. I would like to invite you to be present in Strasbourg on Wednesday, 5 April for this meeting, which will begin at 3.00 p.m. and continue until 6.00 p.m.

During the course of this meeting I would suggest that we discuss the following items

- the parliamentary dimension of the structured political dialogue between the EU and the six Associated countries
- the role and functioning of the bilateral Joint Parliamentary Committees set up under the Europe Agreements between the European Parliament and each of the parliaments concerned
- staff cooperation

I am also considering proposing that a special meeting of the Conference of Presidents of Parliaments of the member states of the European Union be convened, to which the presidents of the parliaments of the six Associated countries would also be invited.

It would also be appropriate for us to consider future informal meetings of this kind.

I very much hope that you will be able to accept my invitation and I look forward to seeing you in Strasbourg.

Yours sincerely,

Klaus HÄNSCH

CODIC DESTINÉ

DU PRÉSIDENT

