6 Selection committee

The projects will be judged by the EYE editorial committee, together with the EP's photo editors.

7 Award

The three winners will be notified by email and an article and photo of the winner, as well as the winning photo, will be published on the EYE website and social media platforms. Throughout the competition, the EYE editorial committee will select the best pictures received and published them in a dedicated album on the EYE Facebook page.

The public will be able to vote for their favourite photos from the ones selected by the EYE editorial committee., The authors of the three photos with the most likes will be the winners of the #EYEamHere contest. All three winners will receive an invitation to make a photo-reportage during the EYE2016 in Strasbourg. Please note that the winners will not be employed by any means by the EP, nor remunerated for their work. However, the European Parliament will support all costs for the winners' participation in the event (travel expenses and accommodation).

8 Limitation of liability

The European Parliament declines any responsibility for the content of the submitted works. Only the participant shall be held liable for any infringement of third parties' rights.

Under no circumstances will the European Parliament be held responsible for direct or indirect damages that could result as a consequence of participation in this project, nor for any financial reward.

If the contest is delayed, cancelled, or interrupted either partly or entirely, for reasons other than the wishes of the European Parliament, the latter will not be held responsible in any way.
