European Parliamentary elections 2014

Elections to the European Parliament took place across the UK on Thursday 22 May 2014.

Our report on May 2014 European and local elections

Our report on the May 2014 European Parliamentary elections in the UK and local elections in England and Northern Ireland found that voter confidence was high but that there are lessons to be learned before future polls.

Nearly nine in ten voters surveyed were confident that the elections were well-run and nearly all were satisfied with their experience of voting.
